QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – As you wrestle with today's Gospel, what signs do you see in your own life that you are "with God."

Youth – Jesus tells us that being His disciple will be very hard. Of all the things that Jesus tells us about the way that we are to live our lives, what is the hardest thing for you to do? Why?

Children – How do you show that you are a follower of Jesus?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER:

O God, you invite the whole human race to enter through the narrow door of the cross that leads to the paschal feast of new life. By the power of your Spirit may we be united to your Son in his sacrifice, and so be numbered among those of every land who will taste the joyful feast of the kingdom, where Jesus lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

This weekend we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous in the special collection! Ham or Chicken Dinner News...We are still waiting for some invoices to come in, but right now the figures look pretty good! A follow-up meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, September 21. In the meantime, while the dinner is still fresh in our minds, we are hoping that you might drop a note in the collection basket or send an email to the parish office with any suggestions you might have and/or any problems that were experienced at the dinner so that we can address these concerns for next year. Thanks for your help!

Catholics Returning Home

If you are a Catholic who has been away from the Church for a while, this invitation is for you. Have you been praying to bring someone home to the Church? Pass this invitation on to them. Starting on Thursday, Sept. 22, The Epiphany of the Lord Parish will conduct a free series of informal listening sessions, titled "Catholics Returning Home," for six weeks at 7 p.m. at St. Brigid Church in Meadville. The series is an invitation to non-practicing Catholics to renew their relationship with the Catholic Church. These listening sessions will be conducted in a support-group format, with updates on the Catholic faith. Former non-practicing Catholics or converts will facilitate the evenings. Everyone is welcome. For more details, call 814-336-1112.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT

In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will know them by their fruits.

Galatians 5:22-26

This passage from Galatians helps us to understand the Fruits of the Holy Spirit (the behaviors of people), and allows us to practice them in our lives.

The Fruits of the Spirit are:

- Charity-giving help to those in need.
 - Joy-feeling happiness and spreading joy to others.
 - Peace-freedom from disorder in our lives.
 - Patience-tolerating suffering without getting angry or upset.
 - Kindness-the quality of being friendly, generous and considerate of our brothers and sisters in Christ.
 - Goodness-the quality of being morally good and virtuous.
 - Gentleness-the quality of being forgiving rather than angry or to be gracious rather than vengeful. The gentle person acts more like Christ.
 - Faithfulness-living our life in accordance to God's will.
 - Modesty-to humble yourself according to being gift's from God.
 - Self-control-to exercise moderation in all things.
 - Chastity-to remain sexually pure until marriage.
- These spiritual gifts are a good guide to how we are to treat others and remain true to our faith.
