QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's First Reading

Adults – We humans are vulnerable to sin. Our sins most often lead to shame, mistrust, and blaming. How can following God's will free you from these destructive actions?

Youth – God has created us with free will, the freedom to follow or ignore God's will for us. How can you discover God's will for you?

Children – Why do our parents and teachers have rules we need to follow? Why do you think God has rules for us to follow?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER

You sent Your Son, O God of our salvation, to rescue us from the bondage of Satan and to form us into the family of Your people. Arm us with the mighty weapons of faith, the unfailing power of hope and the unconquerable force of love, that in our daily struggle against the Evil One we may always share in the paschal victory of Christ. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

From the Family of Earl Karns... Thank you all for pulling together in our family's time of need and providing the social hall and dinner for our many hungry people! People like all of you are greatly appreciated and a blessing! In addition, Rita Bogardus would like to thank those who sent cards, prayers and food since the time of her brother's passing. God bless you all!

Just a few weeks ago we celebrated Pentecost, a reminder that we have the Holy Spirit - the third person of the Blessed Trinity - living in us. What does that mean? We have the power of God in us! We have authority and do not have to be afraid of life. After the Transfiguration, Jesus said to Peter, James and John, "Rise, and do not be afraid!" (Mt. 17:7). God's love does not impose burdens upon us that we cannot carry, nor make demands of us that we cannot fulfill. For whatever He asks of us, He provides the help that is needed." (John Paul II). The best help that we can receive every day is in the Eucharist, who is Jesus, the second person of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus prayed that we would be one with Him and the Father. We have God in us. Take some time to think about that today.

The funds collected will be shared equally between Erie's Women's Care Center and Meadville's Pregnancy Center. Baby bottles are available in the church vestibule to be filled with spare change. Envelopes for cash or checks are also available. Return bottles and envelopes by June 23rd.

Be cautious about sharing personal information Scams continue to be perpetrated across the country by malicious individuals preying on churches and members of the clergy. The scam plays on your sympathies or natural inclination to be helpful. Any communication asking you to purchase gift cards should be considered a scam. Always verify such requests by calling the parish directly. Don't use phone numbers in the fraudulent email. Always look for the parish's official phone number found on the diocesan website or in the parish's Sunday bulletin. In this age when personal data can be misused by scam artists, please be aware that the Roman Catholic Diocese of Erie, its clergy and entities such as parishes and schools will never solicit your personal or business information by any method unless initiated by you. Should you receive an unsolicited request for money or personal information — including a request for gift cards of any type — exercise extreme caution. Contact the person or entity by using official contact information only. Financial fraud like the gift card scam can be reported to the Federal Trade Commission here: <https://ReportFraud.ftc.gov>. To learn more, read this article: <https://consumer.ftc.gov/articles/avoiding-and-reporting-gift-card-scams> from the FTC.
