QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults : What is your responsibility to Jesus? How and when will you carry our that responsibility?

Youth : Jesus tells us that he will remember us to his Father if we proclaim him to others. How easy is it for you to talk about your faith with your friends? How about your family or people you don't know very well?

Children : Jesus tells us not to be afraid. Name a time when you were afraid and Jesus helped you.

Virtues, Explained!

Peace. There may be no other word in the English language, writes Msgr. Stuart Swetland, "more susceptible to sloganeering, and thus misunderstanding." But what is peace, in the context of Catholic virtue? The peace of God, writes Paul in his Letter to the Philippians, "surpasses all understanding." (Phil. 4:7) Peace is both a fruit of charity and a fruit of the spirit. Our modern Catholic understanding of peace is derived from the Hebrew concept of shalom, or wholeness, and it refers not just to an absence of violence but to a personal reconciliation with one's Creator. Peace is a spiritual effect of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our search for interior peace in our hearts parallels the historic struggle of mankind to realize peace in the world by practicing justice. "When we hear the Gospel, dear brother and sisters," said Pope Benedict, "we learn to build peace on the truth of a daily life inspired by the commandment of love."

HELPING HANDS PRAYER

To us, in all our weakness and fear, O God, you have entrusted the prophetic mission of proclaiming your word to a world often unable and unwilling to hear. Strengthened by your Spirit, may we never be ashamed of your faith, but confess your name before others so that your Son may acknowledge us before you on the day of his coming, and welcome us to the kingdom where he live and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever

"The Lord says... Stop your crying and wipe away your tears. All that you have done for your children will not go unrewarded... There is hope for your future; your children will come back home. I, the Lord, have spoken." Jeremiah 31: 16-17. Many of us suffer the loss of our children to the "world" and we pray and pray and pray for them. We just need some new outlooks and tools to work with. Here are some statistics that may shake us into action from the foreword by Bishop Barron on the book by Brandon Vogt, "Return": one-third of Americans identify as former Catholics, and for every one convert to the Catholic faith, more than six people leave. One-third of people raised Catholic no longer identify as Catholic today. That's just the first paragraph... More to follow, stay tuned to the bulletin.

Eucharistic Corner

"At night, the prisoners would take turns for adoration. With His silent Presence, the Eucharistic Jesus helped us in unimaginable ways. Many Christians returned to a fervent faith-life . . . Even Buddhists and other non-Christians came to faith. The strength of Jesus' love was irresistible" (Vietnamese Cardinal Francois-Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan, imprisoned for 13 years).
