Marriage Moment: You already love each other. Have you ever considered extending that love to a child in need of a permanent home? Adoptive parents are "real" parents just as much as those who have biological children. Every child deserves to have a "real" family.

HELPING HANDS PRAYER

To destory the shroud of death, Lord God, and to wipe away our tears, you promised a joyful feast on your holy mountain, and sent you Son, the Word made flesh, to guide us to that glory. Bring all the faithful departed to share the victory of the risen Christ. Give us strength also on our earthly pilgrimage to deny ourselves, to take up our cross and to follow Christ, gladly losing our lives for Jesus and for the sake of the gospel. We ask this through the Lord Jesus, the resurrection and the life, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

If you are interested in becoming a part of the helping hands ministry, we will be asking for new and continuing volunteers. If there is a particular ministry that you would like to be apart of or if you don't know what is available, please see Fram Greahouse or Carol Jones. Sign ups will be the week of November 15th. You may also call the parish office with any questions.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Theme: We must always be ready.

Adults: How are you preparing to be ready for the moment that no one escapes, the moment when you come to the end of your life as you know it now?

Youth: Even though you are still young, what strategy do you have to make sure you are "ready" for the inevitable moment when you will die?

Children: If Jesus came to your house today, what would you do to get ready for him?
