QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – As each of us is called and sent by Christ, how have you incorporated this into your own life, whether married, single, in religious life, or ordained?

Youth – How often do you think about God as Trinity? How do you relate to each member of the Trinity?

Children – Why do you think Catholics make “The Sign of the Cross” when we pray?

Join in the Corpus Christi procession! Why do we process with the Eucharist? Because the Gospel calls us to bring Him to the whole world. When we take Christ out onto the streets, then we can be His light for others by starting the conversation, by causing people to ask us, "Why?" Let's make a bold statement for our faith and march next week in solidarity with Catholics around the world!

Corpus Christi Procession in Meadville: June 2, the procession starts at St. Mary's at 12:45 pm with adoration. We will then process up to St. Brigid's for another prayer interlude, then process to St. Agatha's for reposition and a social afterward. Everyone is encouraged to attend!
