HELPING HANDS PRAYER: O God, in your prophet Jesus, accepted by the Gentiles and yet rejected by many in Israel, you show forth the drama of the human race, free to accept or to refuse the salvation you offer.

Let no threat of opposition, no fear of failure or rejection, break your church's missionary spirit, but keep alive in us the courage to proclaim far and wide the good news of the kingdom.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

Last Sunday the students in the grades 4, 5, and 6 class at Saint Hippolyte asked about the symbols used for the Gospel. The following article from Rev. Paul Turner gives an excellent explanation of each.

EVANGELIST SYMBOLS

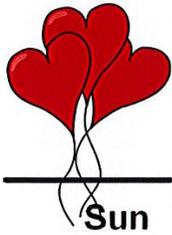

The human, lion, ox, and eagle are symbols of the four evangelists: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. These symbols adorn many works of art, buildings, and objects used in worship. Each may identify one evangelist, or the four may represent the Gospel as a whole. In addition, the four symbols taken together represent the mystery of Christ’s life. They recall in turn the birth, sacrifice, Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus.

The symbols derive from the opening of the Book of Ezekiel. There the prophet envisions four living creatures in the middle of a glowing fire from a stormy north wind. The faces of the creatures resemble a human being, a lion, an ox, and an eagle (1:10). Their mystery and their movement made such an impact on the prophet that Christian generations have seen in their appearance a foreshadowing of the Gospels of Jesus Christ. The figures appear again in Revelation 4:7.

The human being—sometimes rendered as an angel—signifies Matthew, who opens his story with the human origins of Jesus’ genealogy. The lion, according to legend, sleeps with eyes open, making it a symbol of resurrection. It depicts Mark, whose Gospel begins with the leonine John the Baptist in the desert. Luke’s account of the infancy of Jesus places the child in the temple with Zechariah, a priest who offered sacrifice of animals including oxen. The horns of the beast represent the old and new covenant, each with its own sacrifice. John, the evangelist whose work intently gazes on the eternal Word who shattered the darkness with his light, recalls the eagle that flies face into the sun. In this way, tradition has assigned each evangelist a proper symbol.

The St. Hippolyte Le Nom Du Pere Society met on Jan. 2, 2022 for a brief meeting and a celebration of Christmas. Our new president, Julie Foulk, led us in prayer. There were two Bible readings: Eph 4:1-4 and 1 Peter 4: 8-12. Members then shared their special intentions. The minutes and the treasure's report were available and there were no corrections.

Our bake sale made a good profit, and this money will be given to two people who are in need of a little help this season. We will be having our French Dinner on Feb. 12. This is a traditional French Dinner cooked and served by members of our parish in a fancy restaurant setting. LNDP also decided to buy spiffy new money aprons for volunteers to use at the Reverse Raffle, the Ham and Chicken Dinner, and any other time they are needed!

Our new president presented us with a list of areas and events that we will be focusing on this year. She would like to see one person to step forward to be in charge of these. This person would not do all the work, but would be in charge of finding volunteers to help with activities.

The meeting was followed by a Christmas dinner and gift exchange. Everyone brought a dish to share and there was plenty of good food. Everyone had a lot of fun playing a game to try to "steal" each other's gifts during the gift exchange!

St. Hippolyte Le Nom du Pere Society is a social and fundraising group dedicated to charity in our parish and our community. We meet on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00 in the St. Hippolyte social hall. Everyone in the parish is encouraged to attend. Please consider attending meetings! We are starting a new outreach to members of our parish to be more active as volunteers in various ministries, so if someone calls you, or reaches out to you for your help, please consider answering this call with a YES!!!
