QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel
Adults – As you follow God and do what he wants, how do you experience his loving words: “you are my own. My favor is upon you.”?
Youth – As you grow, how do you know what God wants you to do? How do you hear the voice of God saying “you are one of mine, of my Chosen?”
Children – What does God want you to do? To forgive? Be generous? To love?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER Father of great and everlasting glory, by the power of your Holy Spirit you have consecrated your Word made flesh and have established this Christ, our Savior, as your Covenant of peace for all the peoples. As we celebrate the mystery of Jesus’ baptism in the river Jordan, renew in us our own baptism: Pattern our lives on this Christ, your chosen one, the Child on whom your favor rests, the Beloved with whom you are well pleased. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Beware of AI voice scams. Deepfake technology is getting more convincing every day. Using AI, scammers are now able to clone the faces and voices of friends, family and even the IT personnel who support your computer systems. Use two factor authentication on your financial accounts. When it comes to family members, have a family password. Before giving information or login credentials to computer support personnel, call them separately using contact information you have saved locally before divulging any information or clicking on any links. Remember, scammers rely on urgency to get you to let down your guard. So, trust your gut. When the caller puts pressure on, pause and verify. Eucharistic Corner

How many of you say: I should like to see His face, His garments, His shoes. You do see Him, you touch Him, you eat Him. He gives Himself to you, not only that you may see Him, but also to be your food and nourishment.
