THE SANCTUARY CANDLE is burning this week at Saint Hippolyte in memory of Gerry Shank as requested by the Family.

HELPING HANDS PRAYER O God, in the paschal mystery of Christ, Who became poor for our sake and obedient even unto death on a cross, You have chosen to enrich us with every good gift and to give us a share in Christ's exalted life. Let us fear neither the cost of discipleship nor the inevitability of sharing in the cross but gladly announce to all our brothers and sisters the Good News of life healed, restored and renewed. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

We are excited that 8 of the 10 restored window panels have been installed! Hopefully you have had a chance to see them - they're beautiful!

The remaining window from Phase I should be finished soon - and promises to be awe inspiring!

With Phase I coming to a close we are moving into Phase II. Check out the new progress poster for Phase II - another generous gift and work of art from Jen and Chris Gordon. A huge thank you - God bless you!

Our total to date with memorials, donations, and fundraisers is $90,650.44!

Thank you to all who have contributed in any way for your support and prayers - you are a precious part of the Lord's work and our parish's history.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

ADORATION

Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament draws the worshipper into spiritual communion with God. Whether done on one's own time or at a scheduled service, adoration of the Eucharistic presence of Christ fosters our devotion for participation in the Mass.

Jesus instituted the Eucharist for our eating and drinking. Sharing communion at Mass brings us nourishment, healing, and sustenance. There is no substitute for participation in the Eucharist; adoration should enhance it, not replace it.

Catholics reserve leftover communion breads in a tabernacle. The primary purpose for this custom is to have the Body of Christ ready for the dying at any time. The tabernacle also provides communion for the sick or those unable to come to Mass. Because it houses the sacramental body of Christ, it serves as a place for adoration.

Adoration may be private or public. When adoring the Blessed Sacrament in private, Catholics usually go to any church, where the communion hosts are kept inside the tabernacle. They say whatever prayers they wish. In this form of adoration, the doors of the tabernacle may be opened so the ciborium containing the consecrated hosts is visible.

Public adoration may take place in the context of a brief service (traditionally called "Benediction" although that only refers to the blessing that concludes it) or over a more extended period of time. The Blessed Sacrament is usually presented for adoration outside the tabernacle on an altar or a stand. The Order for the Solemn Exposition of the Holy Eucharist is used when the Blessed Sacrament is placed in a monstrance for public adoration and prayer.

Extended periods of adoration used to be common. They filled the void for people who were not receiving communion frequently. However, in the twentieth century, the Church urged people to more frequent communion and has forbidden exposition during Mass. Participation in the Eucharist at Mass accomplishes spiritual communion more perfectly and renders simultaneous adoration unnecessary. Prolonged periods of adoration may happen in church where a large number of faithful are gathering and when the bishop has given his approval. If Mass is celebrated, the Blessed Sacrament should be returned to the tabernacle.

Whether the Blessed Sacrament is inside or outside the tabernacle, adoration may invite us into prayer and prepare us for the Eucharist.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

God has allowed us to live in this great country with so many freedoms - don't forget to thank God for that grace! America fosters a certain rugged individualism, and even in our spiritual lives we stress our personal relationship with God. But sometimes the almighty "I" must remember that God made us to be in relationship, not only with Him, but also with those around us. That relationship comes down to how we treat each other with dignity. God created every person around us, and we need to treat each other as though we were interacting with God Himself. The Eucharist gives us a visible awareness of God in each of us and that we are all one with Him, and thereby with each other. Christ is present in various ways to all His Church, but in a special way, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, in the Eucharist, and He is also uniquely present in us after we receive Him as well. Let the Eucharist inspire us to treat everyone as though he/she were another Christ.
