QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – Name a time when you felt your actions were pleasing to God.

Youth – “With you I am well pleased.” What are you doing right now that is pleasing to God? How does it feel to live that way?

Children – What are some things you can do to please God?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER Father of great and everlasting glory, by the power of Your Holy Spirit You have consecrated Your Word made flesh and have established this Christ, our Savior, as the Light of the world and Your covenant of peace for all the peoples. As we celebrate the mystery of Jesus' baptism in the river Jordan, renew in us our own baptism: Pattern our lives on this Christ, the One You have specially chosen, the Son on Whom Your favor rests, the Beloved with Whom You are well pleased. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

The thing about Confession is that it's strictly between you and God. Yes, we go to the priest, but the priest is in the person of Christ. He can never tell your sins to anyone; he can't even talk to you about them afterward. In the confessional, just imagine you are before God, and He is looking at you with mercy and love. Keep your eyes on Him, and tell Him your story. It's not for anyone else, nor do you need to know anyone else's story. Feel the freedom of Him saying "I absolve you of your sins" and the weight lifting. Then run to Mass and joyfully receive Him in Communion. Jesus is waiting for you.
