QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – In today's worldwide community, who are the rich and what does God want of them?

Youth – Who are the people you have met who are against you? Are there people who persecute you because of your faith? How do you treat these people?

Children – In what specific ways do you share with the poor from what you have been given? lifelongcatechesis.osv.com

CSA update...Our pledges toward our assessment fell short this year. We are required to make up the difference by using parish funds. Any donations over and above what you have already given are greatly appreciated! If you haven't had a chance to make a donation to the CSA, it's not too late. Any amount, not matter how small or large helps us meet our assessment obligation. Today's bulletin insert explains how these funds are used and the benefits they provide throughout our Diocese and the world.

Thanks for your generosity and dedication.

HELPING HANDS PRAYER Beyond all human boundaries, O God, Your deeds of power take place, and Your healing mercy is at work. Ours is not to restrict the wonders of Your saving grace but to give joyful thanks for Your compassion wherever we may find it. Teach us to use well the riches of nature and grace to care generously for those in need and to look carefully to our own conduct. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

St. Pio of Pietrelcina, whose feast day we celebrated last Monday, Sept. 23, said the following about his encounters with Jesus in the Eucharist:

"My heart feels as if it were being drawn by a superior force each morning just before uniting with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. I have such a thirst and hunger before receiving Him that it's a wonder I don't die of anxiety. I was hardly able to reach the Divine Prisoner in order to celebrate Mass. When Mass ended I remained with Jesus to render Him thanks. My thirst and hunger do not diminish after I have received Him in the Blessed Sacrament, but rather, increase steadily. Oh, how sweet was the conversation I held with Paradise this morning. The Heart of Jesus and my own, if you will pardon my expression, fused. They were no longer two hearts beating but only one. My heart disappeared as if it were a drop in the ocean," http://www.acfp2000.com/Saints/Padre_Pio/Padre_Pio.html

One Faith One Family

Three of the many ways your CSA generosity impacts hearts

2024 Catholic
Services Appeal

In Discipleship

“The energy and passion of over 400 students coming together was palpable,” reflected Deacon Steve Washek, director of Faith Formation for the Diocese of Erie.

The diocesan-wide day-long confirmation retreat, a new initiative by the Office of Faith Formation, brought together students preparing for confirmation from across the region. Deacon Washek continued: “This retreat was a unique opportunity to help discover God and the offerings of faith for those who follow Him.”

Moments of adoration and confession became transformative experiences for many. As the event culminated with a Mass offered by Bishop Lawrence Persico, the magnitude of its impact on the spiritual growth of the youth was evident.

Your generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal allows us to come together as One Faith, One Family to support our Office of Faith Formation, responding to Jesus’ desire for a relationship with His people by helping them make a joyful and authentic response to Him through all stages of life.

In Service

The St. Elizabeth Center in Oil City provides food, clothing and other resources to those in need. As a faith-based outreach, however, the dignity of the people they serve is uppermost in their approach.

Rather than being handed a bag of pre-selected food items, for instance, food pantry clients can make their own choices. “They get to choose a certain number of vegetables, the kinds of soups they like, cereal products and more,” says Jessica Struthers, who oversees the St. Elizabeth Center.

Volunteers in the center’s thrift shop also create a boutique look for those in need of clothing. The latest addition? A pop-up dressing room so people no longer have to guesstimate whether or not something suits them.

Your generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal allows us to come together as One Faith, One Family to support Catholic Charities, serving the poorest among us and bringing hope to the most vulnerable in our communities.

In Prayer

Prayer is at the heart of everything we do as Catholics. Creating a prayer walk, the Catholic Schools Office for the Diocese of Erie invited school leaders to deepen their commitment to praying for each other and their students this year.

Karrie Miller, principal of DuBois Central Catholic School, described the prayer walk as an inspirational journey and a time of reflection on the importance of prayer for our schools.

“We are not one school, we are an educational body, as a whole, evangelizing to the world and growing students in faith to carry this message with purpose and reverence,” said Miller.

Your generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal allows us to come together as One Faith, One Family to support our Catholic Schools Office, strengthening prayer and unity among our school leadership to form missionary disciples in Christ and pass on the faith to future generations.

2024 CSA Goal: $4,235,000

27% | Catholic Schools Office

The Catholic Schools Office in northwest Pennsylvania is dedicated to fostering academic excellence, leadership skills and personal growth among its students. With a strong grounding in Catholic mission and identity, the office ensures that students are educated in a manner that encourages them to embrace and serve God in all aspects of life.

22% | Catholic Charities

Catholic Charities, along with its affiliate agencies, dedicates itself to assisting the less fortunate. This commitment is a living embodiment of the Gospel call to serve others in the spirit of Christ, bringing justice and compassion to those in need.

16% | Office of Communications

Initiated in 2004, Faith magazine remains a vital tool in the Diocese of Erie's commitment to invigorating the Catholic faith across all 13 counties of the diocese. This free publication, distributed four times a year to all registered parishioners, is complemented by a variety of digital media and social networking initiatives, all in line with the Gospel call to evangelize.

15% | Office of Faith Formation

The Office of Faith Formation aims to nurture a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ among individuals and parish faith formation leaders. Through a variety of resources and programs, the office addresses the spiritual needs of Catholics at all stages of life, guiding them to a more profound knowledge of their faith and relationship with Jesus Christ.

10% | Office of Clergy Services

The Office of Clergy Services emphasizes the importance of supporting vocations and adhering to Bishop Persico's guidance for continual prayer and support. From ordination through retirement, clergy members are provided with spiritual retreats, educational opportunities and fellowship experiences to aid in their ministerial duties throughout the diocese.

7% | Pastoral Services

Pastoral Services supports the Diocese of Erie's commitment to Pope Francis's call for outreach to the marginalized in society. This fund facilitates the church's engagement with hospitals, prisons and nursing homes. The Office for Divine Worship contributes to the organization of significant liturgical events, including the annual Chrism Mass.

3% | Diocesan & International Missions Office

Aligned with Pope Francis' dream of a missionary Church, the Diocesan and International Mission Office promotes active missionary engagement locally and throughout the world. The office coordinates missionary education and missionary opportunities in parishes and schools, and supports the Mission of Friendship outreach in Yucatán, México. It also helps the diocese fulfill its canonical responsibility to support the Catholic Church's evangelization outreach.

Please give through your parish.
Thank you!

Solidarity

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the Catholic bishops of the United States identify the four main principles of the Church's social teaching and apply them to some concrete issues. This is not to tell the faithful for whom or against whom to vote, but instead to help them form their consciences in accordance with God's truth as they approach this often-challenging decision. The four main principles are the Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Solidarity, and Subsidiarity. They are all interrelated. This bulletin focuses on Solidarity, and the other three principles are covered in three other bulletins in this series. —★

Solidarity is "a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to . . . the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all."¹ We are one human family, whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. The person is social in nature; we develop and flourish within a community. As baptized members of the community of the Church, we are part of one body in Christ and we are also part of one global human family.²

In Fratelli Tutti (On Fraternity and Social Friendship) Pope Francis places solidarity at the center of what it means to cultivate social friendship as one family:

Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community. It means that the lives of all are prior to the appropriation of goods by a few. It also means combatting the structural causes of poverty, inequality, the lack of work, land, and housing, the denial of social and labor rights.³

Thus, solidarity affects not only the goals we pursue in public life, but also the way we pursue them—ever mindful that we are all brothers and sisters, all children of God.

"Solidarity requires that in our prayer and in our political engagement, those who are weak, vulnerable, and most in need receive preferential concern."

Solidarity requires that in our prayer and in our political engagement, those who are weak, vulnerable, and most in need receive preferential concern.

In imitation of the Good Samaritan, we seek to be neighbor to all.⁴ We are called to practice “radical solidarity” by accompanying pregnant women to choose life and by offering support to new mothers and their children.⁵ As neighbors to all, we also advocate for families affected by poverty, unemployment, or illness, individuals struggling with mental illness or addiction, the elderly and those with disabilities, and all whose livelihoods and homes are endangered by climate change.⁶

In countries ravaged by war, such as Ukraine, West Africa, and the Middle East, we must “touch the wounded flesh of the victims” and support efforts for relief and peace,⁷ while also working collaboratively to reduce and eliminate nuclear weapons.⁸

“In imitation of the Good Samaritan, we seek to be neighbor to all.”
————— ★

We seek policies that “welcome, protect, promote, and integrate” migrants and refugees who arrive at our borders, and which aid development in countries of origin.⁹

Racism is an obstacle to solidarity, and we strive to root it out not only by examining our hearts individually, but also by looking critically at our policies and institutions.¹⁰

In a culture that overemphasizes the accumulation of wealth, we must not forget our “obligation to ensure that every person lives with dignity and has sufficient opportunities for his or her integral development.”¹¹

As we seek to foster solidarity in hearts and policies, let us pray with Pope Francis in Fratelli Tutti:

*Lord, Father of our human family . . . Move us to create healthier societies and a more dignified world, a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war. Amen.*¹²
