HELPING HANDS PRAYER You so loved the world, O God, that you gave your only Son that all might be saved. Accompany your people on our journey. Fashion our lives in your true image, that we may embrace one another in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, Live in the communion of the Holy Spirit, and show forth your steadfast love and faithfulness that this world may see and believe. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults : If you were to encourage the members of your own parish to live as a "community of love," which is how we define the Trinity, how would you advise them to live? Use St. Paul's list of exhortations as your starting point.

Youth : The Trinity is celebrated today. How would you describe your relationship with God the Father? With Jesus? With the Spirit?

Children : When people love each other, how do they treat each other? lifelongcatechesis.osv.com

Virtues, Explained!

In the beginning, goodness was all there was. And in the end, only goodness will remain. The word "good" is repeated so often in the first verses of Genesis that it has become almost cliché. God sees what He has made, and He call all of it "good" (Gen 1:31). Likewise, on the very first page of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we read that God created man "in a plan of sheer goodness...to make him share in his own blessed life." When we see goodness, we cannot help but think of God. In baptism, the Holy Spirit gives us the sanctifying grace of justification, which is among other things, the ability to grow in goodness through an increase in moral virtue. Baptism, therefore, disposes us toward goodness, and the more we ask the Holy Spirit for goodness, the more it will be possible for us.

Parenting Pointers:

Do you ever talk behind your child's back? Sometimes this isn't all bad. If your son or daughter "accidentally" overhears a compliment it can carry extra sincerity. If it's a warning it may defuse defensiveness. If you're just floating an idea, it can open later dialogue before making a commitment.

St. Paul Street Evangelization Importance of Invitation

The fourth step in St. Paul Street Evangelization's four-step method for sharing the Gospel in Invite. This is the final step, where you invite them to take a step towards Jesus, either by encouraging them to pray, or perhaps to do some reading based on recommendations you've given them about Jesus. Or who knows..maybe they're ready for confession! As long as they are taking a step, no matter how small, in the direction of Our Lord, then it's a successful mission. One final thing to remember-what they do with the information you've given is up to them. All we do is plant seeds-it is God's job to make them Grow.
